He was sentenced to five years of penal servitude.

LEITER'S LATEST MOVE.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Feb. 15—Fifty Lake Shore cars were placed in the Armour warehouse to be loaded with Leiter wheat. The Grand Trunk railway has turned over a hundred thousand bushels of its wheat to the Lake Shore. No one knows quite what this means. People who should know were of the opinion that the whole deal is with the Lake Shore and that the sending over the Grand Trunk was only a blind.

Ten Crushed by the Walls.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—The walls surrounding the ruins of the burned Union Storage Warehouse Company's building fell at 11:30 this morning, crushing to death ten persons.

Later—A number of boys were playing about the Union Storage companys building when the walls fell It is believed that at least five were caught and buried under the debris. Twenty or more people have perished by the falling walls and the recent fire.

Prince Albert's Visit.

The State Department has been officially notified, through United States Minister Storer at Brussels, that the Crown Prince Albert of Belgium will visit the United States this spring. At the suggestion of the minister, the department has authorized Lieut. Langhorne, the United States military attache at Brussels, to accompany the distinguished visitor on his tour of the United States, which it is believed will be some time in May. It is not known yet if the prince comes "incog" or in his full official capacity, and until this is known the nature of the receptions to be extended to him cannot be fixed.—Washington Star.

Students at the University of Michigan will no longer smoke on the campus or in the corridors, in obedience to the demand of the girl students.

Spain Disavows.

Washington, Feb. 15—Spain has sent a disavowal of the De Lome letter. A "disclaimer," the administration calls it and says the incident is now closed.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 15, '98.

A very pleasant evening was spent last night at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gurly, the occasion being a birthday party in honor of Miss Susie Gurley of Windsor, N. C. At a late hour the guests were invited into the dinning room to partake of refreshments, which had been elegantly prepared by the charming hostess.

Mrs. F. N. Tate and her niece, Miss Carrie Joyce, are spending the day in Greensboro.

Mrs. Julia Brown and daughter, Miss May, were here yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Cox left this morning for Pomona.

J. J. Farriss, editor of the Enterprise, drove down to Asheboro yesterday afternoon on business.

Mrs. E. W. Cates and Miss Mary Mabry of Thomasville spent yesterday afternoon in the city.

Will Lindsay gave a musical concert at the opera house last night. It was well attended and all were evidently well pleased.

Arthur L. Butt arrived in the city this morning and will exhibit tonight and tomorrow night his wonderful projecting kinetoscope.

New improvements are still being added to Jarrell's hotel. New flooring is being laid on the diazza on the east side.

Clara Nevada Lost.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Victori, B. C., Feb. 15—Definite news of the loss of the steamer Clara Nevada has reached here. There is reason to believe that of her crew of 28 and her 40 passengers, not one escaped.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Feb. 15.—Joe Hovey, a sporting man, backed by Charles Fair, has offered $50,000 for a match between Corbett and Fitzsimmons in July, west of the Missouri river.

Perished Homeward Bound.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 14—A specal from Union, B. C., says:

It is reported that the steamer Clara Nevada went down with all on board, on her return trip from Skaguay. Parties on shore heard an explosion on board and saw the vessel on fire near Seward City. She was purchased from the government for Klondyke trade and had a large number of Klondykers on board.

Her machinery and boilers are said to have been defective. Forty passengers, in addition to the crew, were on board.

A Drunken Pair.

One of the most disgusting scenes to appear on our streets for many a day occurred last night. A well dressed man and woman, both strangers here, were seen reeling along the street too much intoxicated to walk except by helping each other. They managed to steer clear of the cops and the lock up.

MINISTER WOODFORD'S NOTE

Reply of Spain Will Be Received Today.

DID SHE ACT IN GOOD FAITH?

And Regrets The Importance Attached To The De Lome Note in This Country.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Madrid, Feb. 15—The note addressed to Senor Gullon, minister of foreign affairs by Minister Woodford yesterday referring to the De Lome letter simply asked the Spanish government whether the intention attributed to Spain by the language of De Lome's letter were true. It also complained of the attacks made in the Spanish minister's letter on President McKinley. The reply of Gullon will be handed to Woodford today. It will declare that Spain throughout the negotiations with the United States has acted in perfect good faith and that the government never entertained any idea of sending such an agent to the United States and that the fact that De Lome's resignation was instantly accepted proves that the government recognized his offense. In conclusion the government regrets that so much importance should have been attached to a private document.

NEW STORY ANENT LATE WAR.

How Near Gen. McClellan Came to Surrender to Gen. Lee.

Lebanon, Ind., Feb. 14—President Lincoln's birthday was celebrated Saturday night and among the prominent guests at the banquet was Gen. Lew Wallace.

During his address General Wallace referred to the dark days of the war when General McClellan had been driven back to Harrison's Landing by General Lee. At this time Wallace said:

"I was near Washington and went there with a party to see the president. I noticed that Mr. Lincoln's face was unusually sad. I thought he was sick and was solicitous. I kindly asked him if he was feeling unwell, but he said he was well enough, that he was anxiously waiting for the time to arrive when a boat would start for Harrison's Landing; that he wanted to go and persuade Gen. McClellan not to surrender the army to Gen. Lee."

Wallace said he had never told this story before, except privately to a few friends.

On The Festive Cable Car.

The cable car starter at South Ferry whistled; the bell of car No. 64 clanged, Conductor Brennan pulled the rope, the car grip grabbed the iron rope, and the heads of passengers bobbed farewell to Staten Island.

Brennan was leaning on the rear dashboard. People have observed that just before jerks the gripman looks over his shoulder at the conductor. Forthwith the conductor looks forward, while the passengers topple like ten-pins.

Perhaps the conductor wasn't alert, maybe the gripman had a grudge against him. Who knows?

When the curve at Bowling Green was reached the grip grabbed the cable tightly and the car jumped ahead. Conductor Brennan's feet reached for the bell rope and Brennan landed on the remorseless pavement.

The car stopped. A policeman hastened to the prostrate conductor and the gripman looked remorseful. Ambulance Surgeon Rodman of the Hudson Street Hospital bound the conductor's head up and revived him.—New York Sun.

Bagged a Big Whale.

Beaufort, N. C., Feb. 14.—Capt. John Lewis, of Capt. Tyree Moore's whaling crew on Shackelford's banks killed today at twelve o'clock, near the bar, the largest whale captured here in many years, measuring sixty feet long, bone seven and a half feet, will make sixty-five barrels of oil, and estimate value of eighteen hundred dollars. They towed the whale inside the harbor and landed it at Mullet Pond, where they will commence drying it out tomorrow.—News and Observer.

SALT BATHS FOR ATLANTA.

An Incident of the Fresh Drummer and the Quiet Citizen.

He was an exceedingly fresh "commercial tourist" from the "metropolis of the south" as Atlanta terms herself and he was "blowing" the glories of his native city for the edification of the whole table. Most of the diners assumed that look of not hearing that is even more effectual as a brake on a blowhard than even an air of utter boredom. Across the table from the drummer sat a quiet little man with white mustache who had not said anything before. During the lull in the storm caused by a good sized piece of rare steak, the quiet citizen remarked: "They are soon to have salt baths in Atlanta, I hear." The drummer from crackerdom dropped his knife and opened his eyes. "Indeed, I had not heard of it. That will be fine. How in the world will they manage such an engineering feat?" The quiet man waited until he had the attention of the table and replied calmly: "They propose to send a corps of Atlanta drummers to the coast of Honduras and set them to blowing. They feel sure the air current will drive the Gulf of Mexico as far up as Atlanta." After that there were two quiet men at the table.

Chicago, Feb. 15—It is asserted today that Moore Brothers have received between two and eight million dollars worth of common stock for organizing the National Buiscut company.

FLORIDA TOBACCO INTERESTS.

SECRETARY WILSON RETURNS FROM HIS TOUR.

Forty Thousand Cubans Imported in a Few Years to Engage in the Tobacco Business There.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Secretary Wilson has just returned from Florida where he went to study the productions of the country. He said he found the most striking development was in the growth of the tobacco interests. Within the last few years forty thousand Cubans have come from their country who have recognized the hummock lands of Florida to be very similar to the tobacco lands of Cuba. The Americans have taken up the business rapidly.

THIRTEEN CLUB'S 13 CENT DINNER

It Was Eaten at the Mills Hotel in Twice Thirteen Minutes.

The Thirteen Club met last night at the Mills Hotel in Bleecker street. Three hundred and thirty-eight members and guests sat around twice thirteen tables, thirteen people at a table, and partook of a special 13 cent dinner, which was eaten in twice thirteen minutes. Francis Train was toastmaster, and he read off a list of thirteen times thirteen places, streets men and things, all spelled with thirteen letters, just to show that there was no reason under the sun why thirteen should be an unlucky number.

Then thirteen times thirteen people, more or less, were called upon to say something, and they would have continued until thirteen o'clock if the hotel management hadn't wished the dinner to end at midnight.—New York Sun.

X-Ray Reveals New Heart Action.

Paris, Feb. 13.—Professor Bouchard by the aid of the X-Rays, has discovered a new movement of the human heart. It is a rhythmic dilation during respiration and is not connected with the ordinary movements of the heart. It appears to arise from a diminution of pressure in the interior of the thoractic cage during inspiration.

Gold Coin in Circulation.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The ministry of finance recently instituted an inquiry to learn the amount of gold in circulation. It has ascertained that there is $800,000,000 worth, bearing the French stamp, in circulation. It is asserted that this is a record amount, and that the United States has $720,000,000, Germany $680,000,000, and Great Britain and Russia $600,000,000 each.

PREDICT ACQUITTAL.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Feb. 15.—The crowd is not so large at the Zola trial. While some are discussing the probable sentence most people now predict an acquittal. The court is becoming more favorably disposed toward Zola. The trial is expected to consume the remainder of the week. The court disallowed the request of Zola's counsel that experts who had heard the Esterhazy court martial be called to testify.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

It has been the fashion for foreigners to speak much of American bad manners abroad; part of the much speaking is doubtless very justifiable; but is the foreigner any better? The English have been the most loquacious accusers. Let us see. There was Tom Moore, Thackery, Dickens of the old timers whom we recall just now who came to this country to be feted, wined dined, stuffed with American doughnuts and American dollars. They returned to England and abused us. Is not a well bred man one who dines at your house this evening and lampoons you through the public prints tomorrow? Then is the Englishman well bred. The latest islander to display this brand of breeding is Anthony Hope. He persistently refused to say ought of this country until he had placed the Atlantic between him and it. Then Mr. Hope, like a true cockney blackguard, falls to and abuses it after depositing to his credit the many good dollars earned by "reading" his milk-and-cider romances to people too courteous to seem not to enjoy them. If Americans would cease to make fools of themselves over tenth rate foreign novelists they would command more respect abroad—even from the tenth rate novelists.

There is probably a good deal in the report that Sherman will resign his position as secretary of state. The wonder has been that a man who has filled the place in the nation's history that he has should have submitted to the intolerable humiliation of his position thus long. With the portfolio of state nominally in his hands, Assistant Secretary Day has transacted the business of his office without so much asking his opinion, for the most part. For the sake of his past he should refuse to be a mere figurehead. If often wrong he has at least been potent.

It would seem that Union theological seminary is having some difficulty in saving its theology from adulteration in the very making. The heresy trials of Drs. Briggs and Smith is still fresh in the minds of all and now Prof. M'Giffert of the same institution is to undergo a like ordeal. Prof. M'Giffert has written a book in which he declares that the Lord's supper was merely a social function and had no paschal significance. This has called forth a storm of criticism from both liberals and conservatives and he will probably be forced in the long run to resign. He ought to do so.

The gentleman who is fitted to give a clear-cut distinction between a Pritchard republican and a Russell republican would confer a favor by occupying the floor for a few minutes.

It remains to be seen whether the brand of justice dealt out at Wilkesbarre will be superior to the article current in Paris.

Thanks to Mr. De Lome, affairs in the far east have been left to their own devices for a few days.

Despite the efforts of the military and judiciary to suppress the truth in the Dreyfus matter, the Zola trial is bringing the civilized world to see the rottenness of the cabal that condemned him to save men in higher place. The trial has revealed more than that even. It has shown the French press to be absolutely venal and that justice in France, before the courts, is the exception instead of the rule. Not something but well-nigh everything "is rotten in Denmark."

Mr. McKinley's post-election prosperity seems to share the coyness of his pre-election confidence.

Now the Spaniards at Havana are claiming that General Lee has written a letter and is in the same box with De Lome, but the Spanish trademark is not exactly a first-class recommendation for a report just now.

England is said to be much displeased with Kruger's re-election to the presidency of the Transvaal. It is really a great pity that other countries cannot conduct their affairs in a way to please England.

The determination of His Excellency to keep Hancock in office makes it plain that some blundering friend of decency has "brought pressure to bear" to secure his removal.

The witnesses in the Zola trial need not get stuck up over their versatile silence. We have senatorial investigations and lease questions in this country.

The woman's suffragists are in session in Washington and loungers seeking comparative quiet drop into the galleries of the senate chamber.

Now it is Mrs. Kid McCoy who wants a divorce. The lines between the ring and the stage are gradually but surely being obliterated.

Since Mr. Marion Butler has gone to Minneapolis it is only logical to conclude that the Hon. Thomas Watson will stop in St. Paul.

The honorable board of aldermen is very sadly in need of an infusion of starch in its spinal column and of progress in its ideas.

NO PRAYER OR BIBLE IN SCHOOL.

Attorney-General Crow Holds That They are Unlawful.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 13.—Attorney-General Crow has rendered an opinion to the state superintendent of public schools which holds it unlawful for a teacher to require pupils to repeat the Lord's prayer as a part of the opening exercises in the public schools of the state.

It also holds that the reading of the Bible by the teachers as a part of the school exercises is contrary to the laws.

The attorney-general holds that these exercises are a form of religious worship and cannot be enforced upon the students under the state and federal constitutions.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 13.—A movement is forming in Kansas to compel the reading of the Bible in the public schools. Appeals have been made to the Christian parents to attend the annual school meeting in April and to vote for and insist upon the reading of the Bible daily and that teachers shall be required to teach to the children, as their first lesson in reading, the Ten Commandments.

To Condemn Murphy's Silver Vote.

Albany, Feb. 14—The debate in the senate upon resolution censuring U. S. States Senator Murphy for voting for the Teller silver resolution in congress will be resumed tomorrow, and the indications are that it will be lengthy and spirited.

When the resolution was under discussion last Monday the debate lasted until 11 o'clock when it was laid over for a week. A similar resolution has been adopted by the assembly.

Evangelist Moody, who is holding a revival at Montreal, has received $965 from a man who defrauded the customs of that sum.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Five Times Condemned to Die.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 13.—Mrs. Elizabeth Nobles, convicted of the murder of her husband, was arraigned in the court house at Jeffersonville last night and sentenced by Judge Smith, for the fifth time, to be hanged. Mrs. Nobles is in feeble health and is apparently indifferent as to her fate, except that she has a dread of the gallows. Every effort possible has been made through the courts to save her life, and her only hope now lies in executive clemency.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

No Whipping Post in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 12.—Discussion of the employers' liability bill consumed most of the time of the state senate today. Mr. Fairfax had taken up and passed, under a suspension of the rules senate bill No. 133, defining in whose name property shall be listed and taxed. The bill had passed the house, where it was amended, and also received additional amendments in the senate.

In the house the bill to re-establish the whipping post was defeated by a decisive majority. By a joint resolution the two houses invited Congressman Bailey, of Texas, to address them February 22nd, on the political questions of the day.

EXPERIENCE
Is a Good Teacher

A VOICE FROM SALISBURY.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 4, 1897.

From my own experience I have found Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best medicine known for building up the health in general. The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat, which was alarming. I was affected with something like croup and again and again for years was subject to attacks of laryngitis I tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and am now free of all those troubles and have been ever since and feel confident the Remedy has made the cure. I have kept it in my family for years and have always found it invaluable for old and young. The extraordinary effect of this grand remedy is sure to be realized by all who give it a fair trial.

Sincerely,
MRS. M. E. RAMSAY.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

John P. Morris, of Charlotte, was at the McAdoo today.

Maj. S. F. Telfair, of Raleigh, was at the McAdoo this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wright went over to Spray today to spend a few days.

A. L. McNeill, of Sanford, spent last night in the city, stopping at the McAdoo.

Mr. C. C. Townsend advertises in the penny ads for a second-hand fireproof safe.

District Attorney Holton, of Winston, was in the city today and went to Raleigh.

Miss Flora Hartsell returned to the city yesterday, after spending a month at Asheboro.

More manufacturing enterprises is the need of all growing towns and cities, and Greensboro is in this class.

Does an ad in The Telegram pay? Ask the men who have been the largest advertisers and act on what they tell you.

All kinds of first-class tools for gardening, pruning, etc., is advertised in The Telegram by Odell Hardware company, today.

Shrier, the exclusive shoe dealer has always on hand an all round, up-to-date and complete line of shoes. See his new ad in this paper.

J. N. Ingram, the new Southside groceryman, says in his ad today that it will pay you to get his prices on groceries before you buy.

In addition to those now going up there will be more handsome business honses erected here in the near future. If not, then we miss reading the signs aright.

Ed Stroud, af Sanford, spent last night in the city. He returned home today accompanied by his sister Miss Lily Stroud, who has been visiting in the city for some time.

That is a beautiful display of mantels and tiling at McClamroch Bros. Look at the window as you pass. Also remember that during this month they will set all mantels free which are purchased of them.

A "perfectly satisfied and happy" man was seen standing at the depot this noon, in the blinding storm of dust which was rushing by. At least he expressed himself in those words. He lives in Greensboro.

Gorton's minstrels are in the city and will appear at the Academy of Music tonight. The noon day street parade was up to the average. Their coming has been well advertised and we predict a full house.

"Good gracious, you certainly do sell shoes cheap here," was the exclamation of a lady in Thacker & Brockmann's store last week. Read their new ads and go and see what you think of the shoes and prices.

The superintendent of the Greensboro Gas and Electric Light Company advertises for a competent man to manage and operate the lighting plant and produce lights at $50 each. Read his ad in the penny column.

The Duke of Arcos, now Spanish minister to Mexico, seems likely to be promoted to the post at Washington in succession to Dupuy De Lome. Arcos married an American woman, speaks English, and could reach Washington quickly.

There is a whole lot full of dirty, slimy, filthy looking water on South Davie street adjoining McAdoo's stables, which should be attended to at once. The health of the vicinity demands that it be drained off, to say nothing of a regard for the decent appearance of things.

They must go, say the Sample Brown Mercantile company. Too many dress goods on hand and the prices are reduced so that they must sell. The firm enlarges its space in The Telegram today to tell you about it. They also make some interesting announcements in the penny ads.

A special train, composed of three Pullmans, a baggage and a dining car, loaded with newspaper men en route to the meeting of the International League of Press Clubs, at New Orleans, passed through this morning. One of the Pullmans was occupied by the Pen and Pencil Club of Philadelphia and along with them were many of the best newspaper writers of the day.

MORE OF THE PUBLIC BUILDING.

It Will be Enlarged to Accommodate all Government Offices.

Captain Devereux was seen at his room before leaving for Wilmington at noon. He said that the building, if enlarged at all, would be so enlarged as to contain all the government offices here, not only those now in the building but the internal revenue offices as well. He added that the final plans of enlargement had not been decided upon nor had any estimates been made. The United States marshall was heard to express himself as greatly pleased with the prospect of getting into the new building and that the sketch of a plan submitted to him by the visiting architect gives him a suite of rooms fronting on Market street, placing him, as far as quarters are concerned, in the front rank of the procession, when the contemplated improvements are finished.

It is said that the mail matter handled at the postoffice here has more than quadrupled since the present building was erected. So that it is not a matter of local pride but of simple necessity that will urge the proposed enlargement and with the able representative now in congress from this district there should be no doubt of its success.

Captain Devereux stated that the only interview given out by him while here was the one published in yesterday's Telegram and that all other statements purporting to come from him were entirely unauthorized and unfounded.

ORDINANCE REPEALED.

And the Election on Sewer Bonds Will Not be Held.

An adjourned meeting of the board of city aldermen was held last night. In the absence of Mayor Nelson Mayor pro-tem Shaw presided. All present except Aldermen Glenn and Hiatt.

The matter for consideration at this meeting was the ordinance ordering an election on the 28th of March on sewer bonds, passed at a recent meeting of the board.

We are informed that the amount of bonds which the city could issue under the charter, would be insufficient to sewer the city. We are also informed that this fact was brought to the notice of the board of aldermen after the ordinance ordering the election was passed.

For this and other reasons it was deemed unwise to hold the election now, and at the meeting last night an ordinance was passed repealing the election ordinance.

Valentine Party.

The Valentine party given last night at "Kathleen," the home Mr. Harry Harrington, was a most enjoyable affair. Many of his friends had assembled to enjoy the eveing and the occasion passed off most pleasantly. An opportunity was offered those who enjoyed tripping the light fantastic to indulge themselves, and it was after the midnight hour when the guests made their departure.

Not a Good Day for Hunting.

A party of South Greensboro sportsmen went hunting yesterday, but it was not a good day for game. One of the party who positively refuses to let his name go in print said: "Oh, yes, two of us killed some birds," but he would not tell how many. He added: "There were not many birds down where we went."

One young nimrod, bent on making a reputation for himself, in spite of the scarcity of game, succeeded in killing a cat, a tomtit and came near killing a "coon." This is all we know about the hunt, but if you are not satisfied further particulars may be obtained, possibly, by calling on Chalmers McLean, who is reported as knowing all about it.
